

Headings off the center and north runways in place when the IGA was made and until the airport expanded with the third (south) runway.