SECOND: Celina Coleman seconded.
DECISION: Approved as presented.

Agenda Item 4 – Presentation: Tempe Streetcar & 5th Street Projects

- Amanda Nelson, Public Information Officer, presented an update about Tempe Streetcar design, route, and public art including:
 - The three-mile route includes 14 stops which will be enhanced with public art. The six hybrid streetcars will operate in traffic and be powered by electrical lines and rechargeable batteries.
 - Streetcar design: the exterior car paint scheme will be green and grey to reflect the City's sustainability efforts; all cars will be ADA and bicycle accessible and feature level boarding; 125 approximate capacity and onboard Wi-Fi
 - Three artists and one artist team have been selected by public selection panel to design public artwork to be incorporated into the four zones:
 - Zone 1 (Rio Salado): Seattle artist Koryn Rolstad; three stops along Rio Salado from Marina Heights to Ash Avenue. Rolstad's designs are tall, colorful structures that will complement the tall buildings along Rio Salado with their angular contemporary style. www.krstudios.com
 - Zone 2 (Downtown): Tucson artist team Simon Donovan & Ben Olmstead; five stops along Mill Avenue and Ash Avenue between Rio Salado Pkwy and University Drive. Donovan's and Olmstead's designs include indented aluminum vertical panels depicting people from the community, and translucent, ceramic frit silkscreened ceiling panels. www.simondonovanpresents.com www.olmsteadfab.com
 - Zone 3 (Gammage Curve): Phoenix artist Mary Lucking; three stops between University Drive and College Avenue along the "Gammage Curve." Lucking has designed cut aluminum shade screens which highlight architectural details in the vicinity of the station. Each screen will be populated with tiny sculpted aluminum people and animals. www.marylucking.com
 - Zone 4 (Apache): Tempe artist Bobby Zokaites; three along Apache Boulevard between College Avenue and Dorsey Lane. Zokaites incorporates theme of referencing and reinterpreting the neighborhood's history.
<http://www.bobbyzokaites.com/>
 - Utility relocation has already begun and will run into mid-2018. The bulk of construction work occurs from early 2018 to mid-2019 with an anticipated completion late 2020.
- A. Nelson also presented information about the 5th Street Streetscape project. Details include:
 - The priority of the project is to achieve a multimodal transportation system that: is sustainable and beautiful, provides ample parking (from 38 to +/- 77 stalls), expands landscaping and achieves 25% canopy goal, creates an innovative and iconic streetscape, allows more pedestrian crossing and continuous bike lanes, provides a "City Hall Plaza"
 - The project encompasses 5th Street from Farmer Avenue to College Avenue
 - Traffic studies were conducted to determine the impact of dedicated turn lane removal in specific areas to install medians, enhanced landscape, sidewalk and gateway treatments, and continuous bike lanes

Agenda Item 5 – Review & Discussion: Commission's Annual Report

- Brenda Abney reported that the Boards & Commissions Annual Report, requested by City Council, will be drafted and ready for review at the November TACC meeting. The report is an overview of what the commission has accomplished over the current calendar year.

Agenda Item 6 – Program Reports: Written reports provided

Reports for each of the workgroups include:

- A. Arts Engagement
 - Aaron Thacker, TACC member liaison for Arts Grants, reported on his experience as the School Arts Grants liaison for TACC. The grant evaluation panel met with directors of the three tiers of schools, post-grant funding, to determine: if there was enough funding for all requests, whether the grant applications met the criteria stated, how to make the application process easier for teachers, and ways to mentor teachers with grant writing.

- Arts in the Parks events are planned to happen on Saturday, November 18th from 1-5pm at Estrada Park, and Saturday, February 24th from 12-8pm at Mitchell Park. <https://www.facebook.com/events/342323902860950/>

Mission: Tempe History Museum is a place where the community comes together to explore Tempe's past, share its present and imagine its future.

Vision : Tempe History Museum is a stimulating public forum acting as a catalyst for lively dialogue.

NOVEMBER 2017

Exhibitions

The lobby exhibit, “Haunted Time Warp” closed on 11/1/2017. More than 90 visitors stopped by to see it and do projects at the museum on Halloween. Over the course of the month, the display drew 1,064 visitors.

A new featured exhibit is open at the museum, “Jan Young: Photographing the 1970s.” The exhibit runs to March 25, 2018.

The new exhibit on display in the Community Room is a companion to the “Jan Young” exhibit and shows images from other photographers who worked for the Tempe Daily News.

In the permanent exhibits, a new display has been installed focused on Charlie King, the only person from Arizona to compete in the Iditarod Sled Dog race. He raced to raise awareness of AIDS and succumbed to the disease in 2005.

Education

The museum has completed tours for 141 students so far this season. Four adult tour groups with a total of 76 people have also been served at Petersen House and the Tempe History Museum.
