Agenda Item 8 – Staff Report:

- Kathy presented the following update.
  - Roof/Leak repair project: Repair work will start next week. The work area will be protected by a 6-foot portable fencing. Two of the covered benches in front of the Library's main entrance will have to be permanently removed. The bolts were causing leakage into the program room. These covered benches will be repurposed and given to Facilities.
  - Campus updates: The City is working on no trespassing signs similar to the type used by the City of Phoenix libraries. Information about the signs was included in a City Council packet. The Library's 24-hour book return had to be taken into consideration. On Dec. 12 there will be a site walk by Kathy Husser, the city attorney, city prosecutor, Tempe Police, and the security chief to decide on final placement of the signs.

- John asked what the practical purpose of the signs would be. Kathy answered that Tempe Police the signs would be used to deter behavior. The 24-hour book drop, mail box, recycling bins prevent the total closure of the campus during non-business hours, but only appropriate activities are covered. Ginny noted that the Orbit runs until 10 p.m. during the week and Midnight on the weekends.
- Human Services Remodel: Kathy met with the architect, Human Services, and the electrical consultant for a site walk on Dec. 4. The design and electrical study should be completed by Dec. 14. Human Services staff wants to wrap-up the project by June 30.
- Library 2nd Floor Remodel: There is a tentative plan for the reconfiguration of Technical Services.
- Matthew Besenfelder, Homeless Outreach Specialist, started working at the HOPE office on the Library main floor. Matthew works at the Library full time and will be at the Library Staff Holiday Party.
- Ginny asked about the Book Bike employee. The Book Bike grant ended on Aug. 31, but Sean King has become the Book Bike Ambassador for the Library connecting with the homeless and seniors at outreach events.
- Unique – Library Asset Recovery: The Library resumed contracting with Unique this year and the first month netted $3200 in recovered materials.
- The Library's Food for Fines program netted $2052.82 in late fees and took in a little more than 1200 pounds in donated food.
- Nathan Morrison has been selected as the Library Services Specialist. Nathan has extensive technology support and customer service experience in the private sector and in libraries. Nathan's first day will be on Dec. 10.
- The Library's new website went live on Nov. 14. Work continued until Nov. 16 to reach full service. Links to the Friends of the Tempe Public Library and Library Advisory Board webpages can be found under the "Use the Library" link in the Library's "How Do I?" drop down menu.
- A map for the Tilted-Landscape art piece was suggested at the October Board meeting but nothing can be placed on the public art pieces only in proximity of the piece. Ginny asked if the Museum may have information on the art piece because it was installed as part of the building.
- The Friends of the Tempe Public Library will vote on Dec. 11 on the replacement of the AWE computer stations in the Library's youth area. The previous AWE computers were covered by a 5-year warranty and only one stopped working. The six stations will be replaced for $18,568, a reduction from $23,000.
- The Library will close on Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve at 5 p.m.
