Tempe History Museum June 2020

The museum is closed to the public and staff are working from home. A lot is happening behind the scenes!

Tempe History Museum's popular summer program series, Tempe Time Machine, returns starting June 3 with an exciting lineup of activities designed for you to easily enjoy from home. This year's virtual theme is Video Games Through the Decades, which draws inspiration from the museum's new featured exhibit, Video Invaders.

Throughout June and July, explore vintage, retro and modern video games through online playable versions. Take part in game-themed crafts and activities. Watch videos about the history of gaming. And stay tuned for an announcement about a live game competition later this summer.

Tempe Time Machine activities are free. New virtual games, content and activity ideas will be released every Wednesday on the TTM webpage. Visit tempe.gov/TimeMachine or call 480-350-5100 for more info.

Video Invaders

Video games are an integral part of our culture.

Visit the exhibit to learn about favorite local arcades, see vintage game systems, play classic arcade machines and discover what is next in the world of gaming.

Exhibit runs through Sunday, November 29

Two Players, Two Quarters

Such Styles and Champ Styles

Father and son team Such and Champ Styles use their pressurized vessels of paint to explore how classic video games have influenced popular culture through a series of portraits of iconic heroes, villains, and accomplices.

Exhibit runs through Sunday, Oct. 4

Juneteenth 2020 presented by the African American Advisory Committee

The African American Advisory Committee is finalizing plans for an online commemoration of Juneteenth. This year, the city of Tempe has designed this significant milestone in African American history as a city holiday. An online event and posted resources about Tempe's African American history, notable people and oral histories will be available at www.tempe.gov/aaac as part of the celebration. Date: TBD
